

Hawaii State Ethics Commission State of Hawaii Resolution

Whereas, the Hawaii State Ethics Commission upholds the principle, affirmed by the people of Hawaii in Article XIV of the Hawaii State Constitution, that public officers and employees must exhibit the highest standards of ethical conduct; and

Whereas, the Hawaii State Ethics Commission proudly recognizes individuals who commit themselves to this principle and who make significant contributions to promote ethics in government; and

Whereas, Larry Meacham has demonstrated his commitment to ethics in government as an advocate, on behalf of Common Cause Hawaii, for strong, effective ethics legislation in Hawaii; and

Whereas, through his distinguished service on behalf of Common Cause Hawaii, Larry Meacham has helped to focus public attention on the need for strong ethics legislation in order to maintain the highest ethical standards in government; and

Whereas, Larry Meacham has provided a valuable contribution to the State of Hawaii and its citizens through his efforts to ensure the integrity of government and public confidence in government; now, therefore,

Be It Resolved that the Hawaii State Ethics Commission hereby commends and congratulates Larry Meacham for his outstanding contribution to ethics in government.

Dated: Honolulu, Hawaii, August 21, 2002.

Hawaii State Ethics Commission

A handwritten signature in cursive script, reading "Ronald R. Yoshida".

Ronald R. Yoshida, Chairperson

A handwritten signature in cursive script, reading "Dawn Suyenaga".

Dawn Suyenaga, Vice Chairperson

A handwritten signature in cursive script, reading "Nadine Y. Ando".

Nadine Y. Ando, Commissioner

A handwritten signature in cursive script, reading "Eloise Lee".

Eloise Lee, Commissioner

A handwritten signature in cursive script, reading "Carl Morton, M.D.". There is a small mark next to the signature.

Carl Morton, M.D., Commissioner